

Certification for responding to anti-Black racism

I received this certification in November of 2020. As with a few other certificates regarding creating an inclusive community for students of marginalized groups, I included this to demonstrate that I have training to assist specific persecuted groups, as opposed to simply being trained with being inclusive in a general sense. A professional growth target would be for me to take an undergraduate course in African Canadian Studies.

Faculty of Education Bachelor of Education program

Kenyan Nagy

has successfully completed a Professional Development workshop on

Anti-Black Racism: Creating a
Brave Space

A handwritten signature in black ink that reads 'Garnet Patterson'.

Garnet Patterson, B.Ed. Program Manager

October 16, 2020